ABSTRACT

This book tells the story of students, faculty, and administrators struggling with the politics of race in higher education at the University of California Berkeley's law school, which was one of the first institutions to implement affirmative action policies, and one of the first to be forced to remove them. The chapters are: (1) "Balancing the Scales"; (2) "Pursuing Excellence"; (3) "Dismantling Diversity"; (4) "Reaching for Answers"; and (5) "Listening to the Silence." (Contains 9 tables and 654 endnotes.) (SLD)
